B. International Interdisciplinary Experience:

To promote interdisciplinary approaches to international issues, students must either:

1. Take one course with an international focus in the College of International Studies or other OU College, such as the College of Business, etc.; OR
2. Attend ten of the talks of OU guest speakers at the College of International Studies on international topics and write a short reflection paper (non-credit hour bearing), OR
3. Take a foreign language class at the University of Oklahoma (e.g., Legal Spanish)

Up to three credit hours in either option (1) or (3) may be counted toward the nine hours of Guided Electives for this certificate but such credit hours will not be counted toward the credit hours required for award of the J.D. If option (2), then please submit the reflection paper to the Kaiser Chair in International Law. Alternately, this requirement may also be satisfied by prior completion of an undergraduate or master's degree in an international affairs field or foreign language. In either case a transcript must be attached to this application showing the applicable courses or prior degree.
