Practical Lawyering & MPTs is for 3Ls only. Course is 7 weeks; §1 runs Aug 22-Oct. 7. §2 runs Oct. 10-Dec. 1.

The American Indian Estates 1-hr. course is scheduled for the Sat & Sun before other classes begin, and on the third Wednesday evening of Sept., Oct., and Nov. Please note that the Wednesday dates are subject to change.

- Email Dean Mullins (gmullins@ou.edu) for permission to enroll in the American Indian Estates Clinic or the 1 hr. American Indian Estates class. Students enrolling in the Clinic must also enroll in the American Indian Estates 1-hr. course, but students may also enroll in the American Indian Estates 1-hr. course by itself—either way you need permission.
- Email Dean Mullins (gmullins@ou.edu) for permission to enroll in Directed Legal Research. You will not be able to enroll without pre-approval. In order to obtain approval a member of the faculty must have committed to supervise your research. You also must identify if the enrollment will be used to satisfy your Graduation Writing Requirement and you must explain why you need to enroll in DLR to complete your project (i.e. why you cannot write your paper in an existing seminar).
- Email Professor Baca (abaca@ou.edu) if interested in applying for the International Human Rights Clinic. Becky will enroll those approved.
- Email Professor Smothermon & Shannon Toth about Externships and Issues in Professionalism at externships@ou.edu. You’ll be added to the Canvas page for the semester you are planning to extern during and will be asked to fill out ALL paperwork before approval to enroll. Becky will then enroll those selected, so you do not need to enroll yourself.
- Email Professor Amy Pepper (apepper@ou.edu) about the Child Abuse Clinic, Civil Clinic, Criminal Defense Clinic, or Litigation Skills (must email her even if wanting to take Lit Skills apart from the Clinic). Becky will then enroll those selected, so you do not need to enroll yourself.
- If you are participating on a competition or a law review, and want the credit hour, then please enroll yourself AFTER you have been accepted!
