Enrollment for 3Ls opens at 7:00 am on Thursday, November 8th.
Enrollment for 2Ls opens at 7:00 am on Friday, November 9th.
Becky will enroll 1Ls the following week.

Enroll on ONE (https://one.ou.edu/), directly from the Academic tab on your page, after logging in.

If you are planning to take more than one course with the same 4-digit course number (i.e. 6100 or 6700), this will require permission on ONE. Email Becky (rlucas@ou.edu) the titles or section numbers of the courses you want to take, for an override. Easier to this BEFORE enrollment, so as not to lose your chance to enroll in a timely manner on the day of!!

Check for any holds on your account and that ONE has your enrollment date correctly listed BEFORE Nov 8-9, as there is no one on main campus at 7:00 am to handle any issues the day of!!

Becky has completed a Graduation Checklist for all 3Ls. Stop by her office (2123J) if you would like to see it before enrolling, as this will help ensure you have met all the requirements for graduation.

Course Descriptions can be found on the website at: http://www.law.ou.edu/content/courses-8#h750

Corporations CANNOT be taken by a student who has taken or is planning to take Business Associations, and vice-versa. Only one of these courses will be counted per student.

- Enrollment in Human Rights Practicum or Int’l Business & Human Rights is by application only. Email Professor Aswad (aswadem@ou.edu) if interested, and please include a resume and transcript. Becky will enroll those selected.
- Email Professor McCall (brian.mcall@ou.edu) to apply for Transactional Law Practicum II. Please include your interest, related experience, or previous course work. Becky will hand enroll those selected.
- Email Professor Baca (abaca@ou.edu) to apply for the International Human Rights Clinic. Becky will hand enroll those approved.
- Enrollment in Environmental Law Seminar is by application only. Email Professor Tabb (mtabb@ou.edu) if interested, and indicate your particular interest, professional goals, or background in the field of environmental law and natural resources, and attach a current resume to your request.
- Email Dean Mullins (gmullins@ou.edu) and Professor Ehrman (mehrman@ou.edu) to apply for How to Drill a Well. Please include your level of interest in the Oil & Gas field, as well as any courses you have taken in this area. You will work with a company in OKC and need to allow time to drive there. Becky will hand enroll those approved. Oil & Gas is a prerequisite for this course.
- See Professor Smothermon or Melanie Tijerina (in Faculty Support) about Externships and Issues in Professionalism or email Externships@ou.edu to be added to the Canvas page. Be sure to apply and fill out ALL paperwork. Becky will then hand enroll those approved.
- See Ruth Walker about the Child Abuse Clinic, Civil Clinic, Criminal Defense Clinic, or Litigation Skills (must see her even if wanting to take Lit Skills apart from the Clinic). Becky will then hand enroll those selected; so you do not need to enroll yourself.

Professional Writing for Litigators is a non-law class for the Litigation Certificate. It will not count for hours towards your JD. Becky will enroll those taking it for the certificate.

- If participating on a law review or competition, please enroll yourself for the credit hour.
- If there is not a waitlist for a class on ONE, then Becky will keep a waitlist. Please email her (rlucas@ou.edu) to be added to it.

The Certificate in International Law has been approved. Requirements can be found on the website.
