Part 1: Essay
At Fellers Snider, we are committed to promoting diversity and inclusion in the workplace, bringing together different backgrounds and experiences to enhance our work environment and grow as a professional family.

Format: Up to 750 words (please type and double space your response).
Essay may include the following:

A. As a result of your life experiences, what does diversity and conclusion mean to you?

B. How will you contribute to advancing diversity and inclusion in the legal profession, and influence those who have yet to embrace the value of diversity and inclusion?
Part 2: Additional Information

Please limit answers to the following questions to two typewritten pages, total.

A. Activities: List your law school activities (i.e. class offices, law review, school organizations, etc.).

B. Awards: List any awards or honors you have received related to the legal profession or within the community.

C. Volunteer History: List your past volunteer leadership roles. If none, please list other volunteer experience as appropriate.

D. Financial Need: Please discuss any special factors of economic need, or other factors, you would like the committee to consider.

Part 3: Letters of Reference

Attach two letters of reference. Reference letters should be addressed to the review committee and should provide insight into your personality, work ethic, values and need for the scholarship.
